

Asst. Prof. Binod Regmi

Nepal Public Health Association (NEPHA)

Member (SEARO)

World Federation of Public Health Association (WFPHA)

Binod Regmi works as Assistant Professor and head of department in academy at the Purbanchal University. He actively participates in university work. He successfully serves his position to develop curriculum of Public Health.

He serves as consultant for different organization in research and training activities (UNFPA, WHO, NRCS, NG, UNICEF, LWF, Practical Action, UNDP, SNV, World Education, National Planning Commission etc through School of PMER, GMTRC, HDA, PHPC, NEPHA, MEH etc). Additional he is an independent advocate of public health in Nepal.

Mr. Regmi successfully served his tenure as central treasurer of Nepal Public Health Association and again has been elected for next tenure too. In addition he served as coordinator of Center of Policy and Public Health Action (CPPHA) of NEPHA. He has been elected as SEARO representative on the WFPHA governing council (2014 – 2017).

Mr. Regmi has been awarded for successfully completion of job share fellowships programme of WFPHA and PHAA in Australia. He was also awarded by NAMS as best instructor in public health. He has authored and contributed as executive editor to the Journal of Nepal Public Health Association (JNEPHA)

Mr. Regmi holds Master in Public Health (MPH) and Master in Sociology and Anthropology (Health). Beside this Mr. Regmi did his bachelor degree in Law (Major: Health Law) and in Biological Sciences.