ANNOUNCEMENT OF
THE 4th ASIA PACIFIC CONFERENCE ON PUBLIC HEALTH
"Climate Change - Population Health"
Nha Trang, 17 – 18 October, 2013

The Asia Pacific Conference on Public Health is convened annually. In 2013, the Vietnam Public Health Association (VPHA) will be the host of the 4th Asia Pacific Conference on Public Health from 17 – 18 October, 2013 in Nha Trang. The theme for the Conference is "Climate change - Population Health".

All World Federation of Public Health Associations (WFPHA) members, VPHA members, scientists, individuals and organizations in and out of Vietnam interested in the field of public health are kindly invited to participate in the Conference. Presentations of scientific researches, training programs and community-based intervention models are welcome.

On-line registration and abstract submission can be made through the Conference website: www.apcphvn2013.com.

Important deadlines and dates:
– January 15, 2013: Registration and abstract submission open
– May 31, 2013: Earlybird registration close
– May 31, 2013: Abstract submission close
– June 30, 2013: Notification of accepted presentations by the organizing committee
– July 20, 2013: Notification of conference agenda
– August 15, 2013: Full-text paper, PowerPoint presentation or Poster submission close
– October 17 - 18, 2013: The 4th Asia Pacific Conference on Public Health